O-131

THE UNION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
200 East Main Street
Endicott, New York

Oldest church in Endicott: originally Dutch Reformed Church, established in 1791; organized as "First Presbyterian Society" in the Town of Union, March 10, 1819. Named for the 'union' of Generals Clinton and Poor during the American Revolution, and site of historical marker.

Photo by Ralph Menne

Chambers Photographers, P O Box [illegible] • Williamsport Pa 17701

PLACE
STAMP
HERE
36774

Post Card